

LATEST BUILDING BRIDGES participant Survey Results from our latest cohort (#4) on U.S. Information Policy and Law – Disinformation, Misinformation, and Fake News:

Did participating in the group help you better articulate your personal values, vision, and proposed actions on our topic ?

Did participating in the group help you better understand the views of others, especially differing views (values, vision, and proposed actions) on our topic ?

Did participating in the group help you find common ground (values, vision, and proposed actions) across the political spectrum on our topic ?

Way Better Better About the ... Worse

Did participating in the group help prepare you to conduct more civil dialogue for future issues and topics when encountering major political differences with other people?

Did participating in the group help better prepare you to be a uniter and de-polarizer (a model) in your various circles of influence?

A great deal A lot A moderat... A little None at all

As we engage on new topics in future Building Bridges Groups, how likely are you to participate again?

How likely are you to recommend joining future Building Bridges Groups to your neighbors, friends, or family?

Very likely Likely Unlikely Very unlikely